

Privacy Statement

Institute 4.0 NV takes all necessary measures to protect your privacy as well as possible and to meet the standards foreseen in the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) in relation to the processing of personal data. In accordance with the same law you can receive, upon written request, an overview of the stored data and you can request the correction of the data. To request access to your stored data, write an e-mail to koen.persyn@forte.eu.

On the other side, your data also influences your conference experience and its potential outcome. That's why, upon registration for the Summit, the data of your registration are inserted into our database. If you are contacting us, your e-mail address and data we read in your e-mail are also inserted into our database. And, when you answer our mails e.g. to acquire your invoicing data or your conference preferences, your data are also inserted into our database. We will make your name, function, and company visible on the Summit documents and in the online community. Your e-mail address is used in our online community, but we do not show it.

So do get in touch to inspect, change or delete your data from our database, but be aware that deletion of your data might reduce your conference experience. Mail to koen.persyn@forte.eu.

Our partners do not get your data, unless you have registered via a partner, then this partner also gets your data. Freie Universität Berlin, Forte NV, and Institute 4.0 NV do get your data, since they are part of the organizing committee. If you do not like them mailing you, indicate your desire when you receive their first e-mailing.
